

Client Fact Sheet

Introduction:

I am a Civil Marriage Celebrant located in The Hills area Sydney. I will work with you to create a ceremony that will exceed your expectations. I am an enthusiastic younger Celebrant who looks forward to meeting with you to commence the journey to make your day your way. This fact sheet applies to all ceremonies other than marriage ceremonies.

Booking Fee:

When you confirm your ceremony with me a $100.00. booking fee is payable. This amount secures your date and is deducted from the total cost of the ceremony fee of $250.00 In the event of a cancellation, the booking fee is not refundable.

Music:

Please speak with me regarding your music requirements and I will assist where possible.

PA system:

I will also supply a reliable PA system, so that the ceremony can be heard clearly by all.

Photo DVD Slideshow:

I also offer a DVD of the photos that will be taken of your wedding by me with my high resolution camera. These can be set to music of your choice. This is offered at no additional cost.

Meetings :

At least two meetings should be held:

At the first meeting the ceremony details are discussed and samples will be provided to assist you in creating your ceremony and the booking fee is paid. I will also discuss with you any other matters that you would like to clarify with me. After that, I will keep in touch with you by phone and email. In other words, I will be with you all the way on this beautiful journey leading up to your destination, your memorable ceremony Day.

A second meeting is arranged nearer the date in order to finalise the details of the ceremony. We will rehearse your ceremony (if required). Also, the balance of the fee is paid.

Ceremonies Held in Parks:

A ceremony that the you wish to have in a park, reserve, botanic gardens or on a beach, MAY require permission from the local council or trust. Some Council's make a charge and allocate only limited time for a ceremony.

For Outdoor ceremonies in Parks etc I will supply a table with white lace tablecloth and a chair with white cover

It is your ceremony and you have the choice of the ceremony that you wish to have on your special day, which may include readings, verses and vows. My reference books and examples of Ceremonies, Readings & Poems will guide you to select the ceremony of your choice.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at any time if I may be of further assistance.
