Benefit from our Premier Pricing Policy

Our Premier Pricing Policy is simple - we will meet or beat the non-sale price of any gift sold by the department stores or any other specialist wedding registry.

Family and Completion Discounts

In addition, your immediate family members qualify for our 20% Family Discount* as long as the value of the gift purchased is more than $300.

Last but not least, a discount for you – we offer a 20% bridal couple Completion Discount which allows you to purchase gifts remaining on your registry at a discounted price. However, there is absolutely no obligation to do this.

*Eligible family members of the bridal couple qualify for the 20% Family Discount on purchases over $300 and excludes electrical and electronic goods.

Completion Discount excludes electrical, home entertainment, whitegoods, vouchers or specially sourced products.

Free delivery and the lowest wrapping costs

A big part of the Wedding Gifts Direct wedding registry experience is making sure your guests are as impressed with our registry service as you are.

Wedding Gifts Direct is the first and only wedding registry to offer your guests FREE GIFT DELIVERY to any Australian address. There are no hidden costs.

In addition, our wrapping fee is the lowest available in Australia. Your gifts are delivered at a time convenient to you, together with your wedding cards and tags.

Personalise your wedding registry with your Wedding Wishes

For the couple whose Wedding Wishes go further than gifts, we offer a FREE Wedding Wishing Well*, when it is included with your gift registry.

Your guests can contribute to the cost of your Wedding Wishes by purchasing shares for your honeymoon, life experiences, your mortgage or even your favourite charity – the choices are yours to make.

*The Wishing Well service is only included FREE of charge with gift registries valued at $2,250 (excluding GST). Should the registry amount to less, an establishment fee of $39.00 (excluding GST) will be deducted from the Wishing Well funds. Wishing Well contributions made by guests are held by Wedding Gifts Direct on your behalf, this fee will be deducted when transferring the funds to your nominated bank account.

Our flexibility gets you the gifts you really want

Unlike any department store, you can exchange gifts purchased for you, when finalising your registry, easily and online! Completing a set, or avoiding a double up with gifts purchased outside of your registry, is simple and easy – from the comfort of your home.

Wedding Gifts Direct is proud to have been accredited by the Australian Bridal Industry Academy (ABIA) as well as the Australian Bridal Service (ABS).

Wedding Gifts Direct took us through our Bridal Registry and made it a fun, easy and quick process. We heard that organising your Bridal Registry would be challenging but our experience at Wedding Gifts Direct has been one of the best parts of organising our wedding. We felt naughty picking out so many beautiful things and not having to pay for it!

Ada Nicodemou & Chrys Kipolitas

Having already lived together we had a house full. A big thank-you to the team at Wedding Gifts Direct, who helped us find beautiful gifts to add to our home. They are a professional and flexible service we have recommended to all our friends!!

Lauren & Justin

Thank you for all your assistance with our Bridal Registry. The entire experience was a pleasure and you all made everything so easy for us from selecting our gifts in your beautiful showroom and then the delivery of the gifts at a time that best suited us. I would highly recommend Wedding Gifts Direct to anyone planning a wedding.

Julia & Matthew

We can't thank Wedding Gifts Direct enough for providing such a wonderful service. There was no way I was going to get my fiancé to trek around a department store writing down barcodes. They offered such great practical advice about the number of items, the range of gifts and we loved the option of breaking big gifts into shares. It was also great to be able to amend our choices both before and after the wedding day. Our guests (particularly those interstate) commented how easy it was to purchase gifts without having to find a store close to them. All in all, the service and experience was amazing - I can't imagine doing it any other way and recommend it to everyone!

Lauren & Paul

A huge thank you to everyone at Wedding Gifts Direct for all the work and help you gave us while setting up and running our gift registry. Your advice and service just made it all so easy to do and we were able to receive those beautiful gifts we wanted from our guests hassle-free. We did our research on gift registry companies before setting up with Wedding Gifts Direct and are so pleased we chose you and will definitely be recommending you to all our friends.
