If specific menu items are unavailable, the establishment will substitute those items with items of a similar value and quality.

NOW THE BORING STUFF – Terms & Conditions

Cancellations

IN the event that a confirmed function must be cancelled with more than thirty (30) days notice given prior to the event, 100% of the booking fee is refundable. If less than thirty (30) days notice is given, 50% of the booking fee is refundable. If less than five (5) days notice is given no refund of the booking fee will apply. Functions cannot be cancelled within five (5) days of function date and full payment for all services will be required after this time. If due to unforeseen circumstances a function cannot be held on the specified date, and the time frame for a deposit refund has been passed, it is possible to roll over the deposit and hold it towards a future upcoming function.

Room Assignment

Management reserves the right to assign another room or area for the organized function in the event that the room or area originally booked for the function becomes unavailable, due to circumstances outside of the Hotel's control (i.e. rain) or should your guest numbers reduce below our minimum threshold, which will be advised, without compensation. We request that no displays or fixtures be affixed to function room walls without prior approval.

Identification Regulations

Government regulations state that a current Australian State, Territory or International issues Drivers License (with photograph), current Australian or International Passport or 18 Plus Card, are the only valid documents to be shown to allow guests to enter the licensed premises and purchase liquor. This requirement applies for all functions. Minors or those unable to show proof of age are welcome to attend a private function but must be accompanied and supervised at all times by a parent or legal guardian and must not consume any form of alcohol, or smoke cigarettes. Guests without I.D or minors, will be asked to leave the premises immediately, and reported to Liquor Licensing officials. Minors must stay in the function area at all times and are obliged by law to leave the premises by 9:00pm.

NOW THE BORING STUFF – Terms & Conditions

Patron Care

With regards to the care of our patrons, our obligations under the Liquor Act and the penalties involved, we are unable to serve or continue to service to persons, who in our opinion are unduly intoxicated. Management has the right to exercise regulatory conditions at any time during a function if it is believed that the alcohol consumption rate is excessive.

Responsible Adults and Minors

Please be aware that minors (any person below 18 years of age) must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian and are required to leave the premises by 9pm. The Liquor Act 1992 defines an accountable adult as a parent, step-parent, legal guardian or other adult who has parental responsibilities for the minor whilst they are on licensed premises. The definition rules out, for example, 18 or 19 years olds accompanying 17 year old spouses, girlfriends, boyfriends, siblings or friends to licensed establishments (including functions) and nightclubs. We require notification at the time of booking should minors be attending your function. We also require all minor consent paperwork to be filled out accordingly and lodged with the venue prior to the function date. If minors attending a private function are found consuming alcohol, they will be asked to leave the venue immediately and reported to Liquor Licensing.

Indemnity

The establishment, whilst taking every precaution, will not be held responsible or accountable for the damage or loss of personal or company belongings/goods left or stored on the premises during or after functions. If expensive equipment needs to be left on premise, notification must be given to the Function Manager on the day of the function, and all equipment must be picked up the following business working day. Again, the establishment, whilst taking every precaution, will not be held accountable for the damage or loss of these personal or company belongings.

GST

Please note: unless otherwise stated, all prices quoted are GST inclusive.

BOOK US IN – Booking Form

I/we have read the Function Summary of Hospitality to be provided and the above Terms & Conditions and understand that our function group will be bound by these and all relevant Liquor Licensing laws. I/we also understand that we will be charged for final numbers given, or actual attendance, whichever is greater.
