element hair's specially selected creative team consists of Sydney's leading stylists, hairdressers and colourists. With over 100 years experience in salons and the media, element hair is recognised as one of hairdressing's elite establishments. Nestled in pretty tree lined Ocean Street and only a short stroll from Woollahra village, the stylish and comfortable salon will have you relaxed and ready to be pampered in no time and you will leave looking your very best. The element team strives to ensure your visit is not only comfortable and memorable but the best experience possible. Our creative staff regularly refresh and update their skills and strengthen their knowledge with progressive training courses, and their enthusiasm is fuelled by attending glamorous industry functions. Passion and professionalism for the hair and fashion industry are the elements on which we thrive! We look forward to sharing this with you when we welcome you to element hair.

Since Debi took ownership of element, her expertise and inspiration has been evident. With a background in fashion, beauty and hair, she has travelled internationally working as a make up artist on film and television with acclaimed directors and actors. Debi has a great sense of style and astute attention to detail, and brings a warm and generous energy to element. Focusing on abundance and luxury, Debi's vision is to create an inviting and uplifting space, adding those little extra special touches that ensures an exceptional experience. Owning a salon has been a dream of Debi's and now it is a reality so her insight and creative energy is focused on making her salon a cut above the rest.

Jenni is the salons co-ordinator and has been in the hair, makeup and design industry for many years. She is well attuned to the needs of an upmarket boutique salon and her ability in running the salon smoothly is achieved with her genuine caring and attentive style. Jenni's authentic warmth and graceful style has our clients feeling welcome from the moment they enter element.

Josephine salon manager / senior hairdresser, has been in the industry for more then 20 years, gaining knowledge in some of the most highly regarded and exclusive salons of Sydney. Her work regularly features in magazines such as Cleo, Cosmopolitan, and Cosmopolitan Brides. Josephine has worked on the style team for fashion week in Sydney, Melbourne and Paris. Other fashion shows include Myer and David Jones, Sydney. Josephine's hairdressing signature is natural and personalised to suit each client, her passion, expertise and skill has her clients relaxed and happy under her care. Josephine specialises in cutting curly hair and bridal and event up-styles. "It's not just about hair to me. It's about the whole package that I bring forward to all my clients. Caring about the way my clients look and how I can help them be happier with their hair. It is so rewarding to see that a client is thrilled with her hair. It reminds me time and time again why I love what I do."

Deborah senior hairdresser, stylist and head colourist has been in a salon environment for 13 years, 5 years of which have been at element. She has earned an international reputation for her own colour innovations and cutting edge haircutting and styling. Her inspiration for fashion, current styles and colours has been featured in magazines such as Harpers Bazaar. "I love creating beautiful wearable hair for my clients and have an exceptional eye for perfect colour choice and style for my client's hair, skin tone and face shape. My number one motto is communicating properly with my clients and building a rapport which is long lasting and giving them the best service ever. I love my job immensely and believe I was born to be a hairdresser."

Jasmine senior hairdresser, stylist and colourist at element, has 13 years experience within the industry and over 3 years have been at element where she has a very loyal clientele that has followed her throughout her career. Jasmine has an ability to weave hairdressing magic and transform, whether she is creating a total glamour statement or an easy wear low maintenance style. Jasmine has been making women and men all over Sydney not only look great but also feel amazing about their hair. Jasmine has passion and creativity combined with exceptional technical ability and her broad fashion knowledge makes her a very sought after stylist. Jasmine is a true artist with an easy going personality and a professional approach with her clients, so her clients feel confident and relaxed.

Josh senior hairdresser, stylist and colourist began his career in Adelaide where he gained much of his experience in the award winning Paisley Park hair salon. At element, Josh has a great reputation for his technical knowledge and skill and is able to communicate effortlessly with his clients. Passion for the industry and genuine care for his clientele is evident, whether he's creating a complete make-over or maintaining a shape and style for your hair type and lifestyle. Josh is adept in all facets of hairdressing including up-styles and event styling. Recently Josh was hand selected to work with an elite team of experts at the 'Redken Reloaded expo' and was a member of Sydney's 2010 Fashion week hair team. Josh's endearing nature ensures his clients feel at ease to discuss their hair and their ideas with him. "I like working with my clients with a realistic approach to styling, so that they can manage their hair in between hair appointments and feel happy with their look. I love doing all aspects of hairdressing, whether it's fashion or classic."

Ricky senior hairdresser, originally from Brisbane, Ricky's passion for hairdressing took him further a field, gaining the knowledge and experience that makes him an approachable and sought after hairdresser. Ricky spent 12 years working as a freelance stylist in Paris, London & New York and if you want he can give you the edge, style and sophistication of these capitals!. His work is thorough and diverse and includes film, theatre, television, runway shows, editorial spreads. Having worked as an educator and owning his own salon, he knows what it takes! His flair for creative styling can be seen featured in many magazines worldwide. Ricky has a very gentle and quietly confident manner in making you feel comfortable, whilst listening and being intuitive to your needs for your hair. He is willing to take your lead or give you his insights into your colour, shaping or special event upstyle. Now calling element home, Ricky is available to meet you on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

George senior hairdresser, the quintessential hairdresser for those who demand the very best. After owning and managing his own salon for 15 years and devoted to the Hair industry for 26 years, George has joined the team at element hair. His commitment, to each and every client, is to offer you a personalised wearable shape and colour to suit and compliment your individual look. With a pure passion for hair, his fresh approach and innovative cutting, colouring and detailing techniques demonstrate how seriously he loves his profession. " a big part of my hairdressing is adapting current fashion trends to suit all ages and hair types. After 26 years of doing what I do I still get excited when my clients walk in" French flavoured inspiration representing cool sophistication has all his clients coming back for more. Uncomplicated and innovative with an edgy urban chic to his hairdressing, George feels in his element within our dynamic salon. George is available to meet you at element on Tuesday and Thursday.

Martina beauty therapist and apprentice hairdresser, is a valuable member of our team at element. Displaying great potential supporting the senior hairdressers, she is training in blow-drying, colouring and conditioning treatments. Martina's skill for a fabulous head massage is becoming legendary and her hand massage technique is an absolutely wonderful way to feel pampered and relaxed whilst in the salon.

Tommy apprentice hairdresser, is new to element and a great team support, whether it is blow drying, massaging or colouring.
