Are you expensive? What are the costs involved?

It completely depends on what the problem is and what the job entails. Having a blanket price across all blocked drain services is not in the buyers best interest. Do you really want to pay more than you need to? Or do you really want to use a plumber that doesn't have the experience to get the job done right the first time. That's why at Blocked Drain Plumbers, we have a completely free, no obligation phone consultation to begin with and we don't have a call out fee.
