Dream Interpretation

Understanding your dreams can be key to your peace, well-being and growth. They shed new light on old problems and bring new problems to light. It is always best to learn how to interpret your own dreams because you have more insight into your own personal symbols than anyone else ever will. At times though, we all need a little help so The Dream Alchemist offers a range of dream interpretation services - not the regular out of a book dream interpretation but a more intuitive interpretation.

There are three levels of Interpretive Service

1. A straight intuitive interpretation of your dream listing possible meanings for each symbol.
2. An intuitive interpretation of your dream with guidance on what steps to take next.
3. The third option is an intuitive dream interpretation with a 30 minute coaching session on Skype, by phone or face to face.

Workshops and Products

Dreams provide a gateway to our own inner worlds and to deeper understanding of self. They are our compass, companion and divine guide on that inner journey that we all, at some point, must take. From dreams we can learn, grow and evolve into more enlightened versions of ourselves. For those who desire to seriously pursue personal & spiritual growth, dream work becomes a tool that steers and reveals how you are journeying through life.

Once we have learned the language of dreams we are welcomed into a new world, our own private arena for higher learning, inner healing and divine guidance. There is no better way than to begin learning this language than through dreamwork and the sacred creation of a dream portal.

We offer 3 main workshops.

Dreamwork for the Complete Beginner ~ Short Course

Learn how to remember, record, and interpret your dreams. Great for those new to dreamwork or those wanting to take their dreamwork to the next level.

Through The Portal

Journey into your own dreamscape to discover what you need and then create it as a sacred dream portal. A powerful one day workshop.

Weaving Wholeness

Those inspired to create a larger dream portal than we do in the one day workshop will love the fun 2 day workshop.

Dreamwork Products

We continue to develop new dream portals, workbooks, videos, meditations and courses. Please check our website or sign up for our free newsletter.
