GROWINGUP green

95% biodegradable nappy

NEW PRODUCT LAUNCHED 2011

GrowingUp Green is an Australian brand of environmentally conscious, chemical free products designed to care for babies and mother nature.

Our aim is to reduce the carbon footprint on the Earth and preserve our environment for future generations to enjoy.

How are we environmentally friendly ?

Our nappies are made from renewable resources. Manufactured without harmful agents or toxic residues. Free from perfumes, lotions, artificial antioxidants & TBT. 100% chlorine free.

How are we safe for sensitive skin ?

The materials used allows skin to breathe, reducing nappy rash. Natural plant-based materials are soft and gentle on baby skin.
