Pricing

We like to do things differently here at Your Cloud Advisor. We recognise that as a business owner, you need to get as much bang for your buck, as possible but at the same time; you require accounting, taxation and business management support and advice whenever you need. With this in mind we've designed a range of open and transparent pricing plans with the following features:

Fixed prices - Our prices are fixed that way you will always know where you stand

Unlimited advice - All of our plans include unlimited, ad-hoc phone and email advice so that you always have the accounting, taxation and business management support that you require, whenever you need it.

Monthly payment plans - to ease the cash flow burden on your business, our plans are payable on a regular monthly basis; and,

Choice - You choose your own price based on the services that you require

So we've made it easy for you – just choose the service level that you require from our flexible monthly plans, then contact us to get set up.

“THE STARTER PACKAGE”

$132 Per month Incl. GST ($1,584 annually)

This plan is a great fit for clients who are keeping their eye on additional costs and are not looking for full-service support at this stage. You don't have any GST reporting issues or requirements, just need some help to get the compliance side organised and guidance in starting your business.

Perhaps your current accountant is not providing the value or up to date support that you need in 2013/2014. Get excellent advice and input to drive your business forward with our Starter plan!
