

curving off the lower steps

The amazing Adrian working like a trooper as always. The sensitivity and care taken in every detail, whether it be the fitting of architraves, the sanding of reused timber doors, or this curving off of the lower steps and stairs; his work is outstanding, precise and executed with an open heart. Yes a rare breed of builders we have been blessed to work with indeed.