

Is your financial house in order?

Do you have the freedom to do what you want, when you want?

Is your family and lifestyle always protected if something were to go wrong?

What are you doing now to guarantee readiness for life after work?

Who helps you to keep things simple and avoid making big mistakes?

Who do you trust to help you understand what you truly need to know?

We get your entire Financial House in order now and keep it that way forever.

Every dream home ever built started from a plan that reflected someone's personal aspirations, needs and wants. It's pretty easy to imagine the disaster that would unfold if there wasn't a plan.

Dream homes are built on solid foundations, with a strong framework and of course a roof for shelter from bad weather.

Just like a dream home, your Ideal Financial House requires solid foundations, a strong framework, a durable roof for shelter, all built by professionals from a guaranteed plan to last the test of time.

At CommonCents Wealth, we are YOUR personal financial architects with a commonsense approach to building your Ideal Financial House and making it last for life.

At CommonCents Wealth we are your personal financial architects that get your Financial House in order, now and into the future

At CommonCents Wealth we want all our clients to experience the true wellbeing that flows from having their entire financial house in order, now and into the future.

Unlike other advice firms, we really take the time to identify our client's personal values, financial needs, and future goals – then design and implement common-sense strategies to deliver on these.

At Common Cents Wealth we pride ourselves on delivering outstanding client satisfaction, are market leading in our philosophies, responsible for our actions, open and respectful, and act with the highest integrity in all we do.

Our clients have access to their financial planner when they need it, work with their financial planner in partnership, and are confident in the relevance of their financial strategies, and above all are secure in their financial future.

Richard Brannelly B.Com Dip FP CPA SSA
Senior Financial Planner & Partner

Mobile: 0417 960 919
Email: richard.brannelly@ccwealth.com.au

Richard's approach to financial planning has been proven over many years to deliver financial independence and peace of mind for clients, no matter what the economic climate may look like. Richard believes in building on strong foundations, harnessing cashflow, deep research, and managing risk. These principles are timeless and provide a roadmap to success for all generations. Richard's commitment to customer service is second to none and highly valued by his clients – many of whom have worked with him for over a decade now.

Away from work Richard is married to Kylie and together they are raising four young boys which keeps the weekends busy. Richard is a keen sports fan and also likes to get his hands dirty in the garden when time permits. Toowoomba has been home for the Brannelly family since 2002 and they have built strong links to the local community, making time to volunteer with a number of school, church, and sporting groups.
