

Cinematographer, Bruce McNaughton, lining up a shot on a Royal Flying Doctor Service project.
Photo courtesy of A. Wilson Barr.

GD Bruny: Auteur.

SUMMARY:

Evidenced talent and amassed expertise in concert with persistence of endeavor. He made his first television commercial on 35mm motion picture film and cel animation, May, 1980. Many screen-projects successfully completed since; on motion picture film, analogue, digital and now in HDV.

FORTHCOMING PROJECTS:

A 90-minute, period feature drama motion picture; now being cast.
Several pieces in development: A 1-hour trilogy, and 2 x feature motion pictures.

PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Researcher, Writer, Illustrator and Producer: "Historical Adventure":
An 1850's series of 3 x interactive e-books.

Executive Producer / Director / Creator / Writer: "Busranger Origins": a 2 x 1-hour storybook drama mini series.

Director / Producer: An independent, commissioned by the Flying Doctor Service of Australia, for 5 continuous years: 1990-1995.

Screenings: have taken place on Australian metropolitan and regional free-to-air television and closed-circuit television.

ADDITIONAL ATTAINMENTS:

Brokered: several titles into distribution release under various labels including Coronet / Paramount.

Trained and Assessed: in screen production.

Founded: Associated Creative Talents in November, 1983.