Look beautiful and feel comfortable in a dress that flatters and fits you perfectly.

d'Italia will make the exact style you want, with custom-built corsetry to fit you perfectly, using the best quality Italian silks and French laces.

You can bring in all your ideas and we will help you fine tune the design if need be. Once the fabrics have been chosen we will work out what the cost will be and refer you to one of our expert bridal couturiers to create your gown to perfection.

The average cost of d'Italia custom-made wedding dresses – including couture and fabric - range from only:

Without French lace, beading or embellishments $2,500 - $3,000

With French lace, beading and/or embellishments $3,500+

To discover how much your dream dress would cost, call 03 9509 4633

Simple step-by-step guide:

- 1 Gather images to show what you like from magazines or the internet.
- 2 Make an appointment and our designers will fine tune the style based on your thoughts, images, body shape and personality.
- 3 From our collection, we will help you choose the perfect fabric, French lace and/or embellishments and then we will work out the exact cost.
- 4 You will get a referral to one of d'Italia's excellent bridal couturiers to have your gown created exactly the way you want it.
