

'Natalie, Eric, Celeste and the rest of the staff at Deborah Windfield Jewellery were amazing and made planning our wedding jewellery easy. From the engagement ring, the wedding bands, the cufflinks for the groom though to that something special for the bride, Deborah Windfield Jewellery helped us all the way'

MATTHEW AND KRISTY-JAI

'Thank you so much for the engagement ring, the Deborah Windfield team has done a wonderful job, I am so happy! And the surprise was magnificent, what a special touch for me.'

JANE

'I have been a client of Deborah Windfield Jewellery since 1987. My first experience with them was for an insurance claim. Since then I have purchased various pieces over the years. The staff are friendly and take the time to go through detailed explanations with you to help you choose something that suits you. I highly recommend Deborah Windfield Jewellery.'

SUE

'We can't speak highly enough of Deborah Winfield Jewelry (DWJ) and will always be grateful for the incredible experience we had with their store... The staff at DWJ spent countless hours working with us to make the perfect ring. After our return to California we were unable to find a jeweler that had comparable quality. Once again DWJ was commissioned to design and craft our wedding band. We had such trust in the quality of DWJ that the ring was purchased over the phone site unseen. Thank you DWJ, we look forward to purchasing from you in the future.'

SARAH AND GADI

'Waiting at the bus stop it was Deborah Windfield's amazing display of jewellery in the window that captured my eye and from the moment we got engaged, I knew DWJ would be our jeweller... The advice & service offered was very informative and from the onset we were made to feel like valued customers even though this was our first experience with DWJ.'

AMANDA AND AZAN

Since 1986, Deborah Windfield Jewellery has been designing and hand crafting individual pieces of the highest quality. Designed to meet specific requirements and made to last, each piece is unique and timeless.
