

Homeopathy

Homeopathy is a medical science founded by German doctor Samuel Hahnemann (1755-1843).

Homeopathy understands the illness as an unbalance of the vital Force.

Vital Force is responsible to maintain all the systems of the body in equilibrium towards any possible decompensating factor.

When illness appears and the vital force suffers disequilibrium, homeopathy will give an impulse to our vital energy or force and will restore the unbalance suffered, always with the aim to heal the body.
