

KEMISTRY SOUNDS DUO

Kemistry Duo perform and cover all styles of music from recent edgy chart toppers through to the good ol' classics. Kemistry's unique music style, wealth of experience and extensive music library fills any dance floor.

The highly professional team perform hit covers which are accentuated with their own vocal harmonies. Coupling this with their brilliant, custom made professional backing tracks creates a fantastic full live band sound. Everything from background dinner music, acoustic guitar ballads, smokey jazz/blues (a la Norah Jones), Pop, Latin, funk, Classic rock and contemporary music are covered, including all the major artists from the last five decades of popular music

Kemistry Duo prides itself in the fact their heart and soul goes into every gig. From the first contact to the final song of the performance and especially if you book them for a wedding. They know that this is one of the most important days in a person's life. As entertainers they understand this and treat your wedding as if it is the most important day of their musical career!

Kemistry Duo, no matter what the occasion or its requirements, tap into the emotion of the event, connect with their audiences and deliver! The combination of our highly polished and coordinated skills, ensures that you receive the very 'best' in music entertainment
