Welcome, thank you for your enquiry, and congratulations on your engagement! Are you looking for a relaxed, contemporary celebrant who has experience, compassion, professionalism and a really good sense of fun? Then please give me a call to arrange an obligation free first consultation and quote.

I am a professionally trained Modern Celebrant who has the skills and the desire to create and perform the ceremony that you want. My background is in training and acting, and it is my passion for training and acting that led me to have an interest in becoming a Celebrant. My qualifications include a dual Certificate IV in Marriage Celebrancy and Certificate IV in Work Place Training and Assessment, and I completed my training to become a registered Marriage Celebrant with the Academy Of Celebrancy in Sydney, Australia.

I believe that it is a great privilege to be able to contribute to such a significant and special part of people's lives. I am committed to giving you the ceremony that you have dreamed of and take particular pride in attention to detail and personalising your celebration. After all it's your special occasion whether it's just two people or two hundred it's still about you. So I will take the time to find out who you are and what you like and will tailor a ceremony that reflects your personal style and the atmosphere you wish to create. I am also a great believer in making the whole process as easy and stress free for you as possible. I will do my very best to guide and support you from our first chat all the way to the big day, including my ceremony checklists and resource lists.

My background and experience is mostly from the make up, beauty and fashion industry. I was born in Adelaide, studied beauty therapy and make up, worked as a therapist, part time model and model instructor. Then moved overseas to Asia for 7 years, managing 5 star resort spas in Indonesia, learnt the Indonesian language and tutored English privately to affluent Indonesian families. Returned to Australia, and spent 2 years one of Adelaide's elite suburbs, managing a salon, then moved to Melbourne as State Training and Promotions Manager for Chanel, and was responsible for all Chanel Department Store and Pharmacy Events across Victoria and Tasmania, conducted regular classroom trainings, and travelled nationally with Chanel to plan and participate in Chanel Make Up Events. More recently I lived in Sydney managing a large skincare and make up training and events department for a major beauty product distributor of 11 brands, now settled in Melbourne which is officially my home!!

I have spent much time travelling the world and meeting people from all walks of life, places and cultures. I am self motivated, patient, enthusiastic with immaculate presentation skills. I have a passion for travel, languages, communication and people, fluent in Indonesian and speak some basic French and Italian. So, if you would like to share your story with me and let me help you share a little of it with your guests, then please give me a call.

Please feel free to contact me for a completely obligation free first consultation and quote.

Once again congratulations and Good Luck
