

TOP 5 REASONS TO CHOOSE FULL CIRCLE

Telco Analytics® from Full Circle is simple and transparent – the management dashboard provides all the information executives need. With almost a decade of experience, insights and software development behind us, the benefits of choosing Full Circle are clear:

1

Cost savings and cost neutral

We save clients like you an annual average of 26% on telco costs, and if we don't save you at least the cost of our fees we won't charge you a thing

2

No change in carriers required

All analytics and savings are within existing contracts and with existing carriers – change is not required

3

Time savings

Ours are managed services for your team (accounts, IT) providing a new level of support, skill and knowledge

4

Unified strategy

Encompasses all aspects of contract life cycle management to find savings in every corner

5

Independent

100% working for client with no selling of product or Telco relationships at all
