

First impressions are everything

For all the time and money spent building your dream, what impression does your front door give? At Doors Galore, we believe finding the right door is like putting the signature on your painting; the right choice is critical.

Luckily, there is an easy way to handle all the options available. We offer expert advice and product choice that's second to none - from choosing the door itself, to finding just the right hinge or finish that's best for you. Plus any work we commission such as leadlighting or staining is 100% guaranteed, using carefully selected experts.

We're a complete one stop service with experienced staff, who have always got exciting ideas. So why not drop by for a chat? The store is easy to find with convenient parking, and a quote costs nothing.

Isn't it time you put a smile on the face of your house?
