

Peer Business Consulting is dedicated to supporting Australian startups and SMEs

Peer Business Consulting was founded by Angeline Zaghloul, a consulting professional with over 20 years experience. This includes:

- ❖ Business strategy and development
- ❖ Management consulting
- ❖ Business analysis
- ❖ Client service and relationship management
- ❖ Project management, and
- ❖ Operational process improvement.

Angeline's passion is successfully implementing strategies and plans into operational practises. Angeline is dedicated to working with business stakeholders at all levels to embed these practises in an efficient and sustainable way, leading to business growth and success.

"Angeline's stakeholder management skills and deep understanding of process analysis and organisational complexity were key [to the project]. She is a very reliable and committed professional and drives initiatives to completion."

Daniela Polit, Director Project Risk Consulting at Deloitte

"Angeline approaches all challenges with a detailed project management orientation... Angeline also forms excellent relationships that make her and your job smooth..."

Chris Briant, CEO Australasia at Parametric
