Melbourne Interactive Theatre is unlike anything found in a theatre, sending the audience on an actual journey through the streets of the city. Participants are sent on a mission, aided by clues and mysterious cast members scattered throughout various locations in the city such as park benches, iconic landmarks, bars, wharfs, and back alleys. Professional actors take you on a crazy, exciting adventure throughout the Melbourne CBD area.

Small audience groups navigate the city streets, piecing together an absorbing and entertaining plot 'The Messenger' - which is in the theme of a modern day Underbelly/gangster love story.
