

Two Way Radio Rental and Motorola Radios Australia

CSE Comsource are an established industry leader when it comes to the delivery of tailored telecommunication solutions across mining, oil and gas, construction, commercial and Government sectors.

We work locally to focus on our clients to provide Two Way Radio Rental and Motorola Radios in Australia as well as being able to call upon extensive resources and knowledge both domestically and internationally. Listed on Singapore's Stock Exchange, we are a truly international organisation servicing 20 countries and employing over 1,500 employees.

We have a clear technical focus in a specialist industry. We support clients with unique, time-critical demands. We recognise that our people are our business. The CSE Comsource team is supremely capable, broadly experienced and highly reliable in meeting and exceeding client expectations. Our outstanding people are engaged in the relentless pursuit of excellence. They are motivated by the challenges presented by our clients' requirements and it is with confidence that they combine their talents, experience and our proven processes to develop telecommunications solutions that support many of the most successful businesses in our target market sectors.

Service and Maintenance Capabilities of Two Way Radio Hire and Motorola Radios Australia

CSE Comsource supports and maintains all equipment that we supply. In addition, we offer maintenance and management packages if required.

- The following services are offered:
- Rental Managed Services
- Maintenance Agreements (based on structured SLAs and KPIs)
- 24/7 On Call Support Services
- Time and Material Repairs
- Fixed Price Repair Options
- Extended Warranty Arrangements
- Preventive Maintenance Programs

Call today to see how we can provide your business with Two Way Radio Hire in Australia.