

End of Tenancy Bond Cleaning

We know what you will need to have cleaned to get your bond back. Kleaning King will issue you with a tax invoice stating that you have had the property professionally cleaned to provide to your landlord or property manager.

We offer reliable and affordable end of tenancy cleaning service, specialising in end of tenancy cleaning for all tenants and landlords. All we need is 24-hour notice to organise your bond clean. Please note our end of tenancy cleaning does not include professional carpet cleaning, this is available as a separate service. Our End of Tenancy Cleaning (Bond Clean) covers the areas required by your real estate.

Carpet Cleaning

Kleaning King's cleaning services team is fully trained and highly motivated in professional carpet cleaning, steam cleaning and carpet stain removal. We use the latest carpet cleaning equipment, materials and techniques which will ensure that your carpets retain their 'as new' colour and appearance.

Regular Cleaning Services

Whether you are looking for a regular or one-off cleaning service, cleaning up after a party or are moving out and require a bond clean we have a wide variety of residential cleaning services to match your requirements. Many of our customers find that they are unable to fit 'cleaning' into their busy work and social commitments, and use our residential cleaning services to ensure that their home is always clean and tidy.

Commercial Cleaning

No matter what size of premises you have, Kleaning King can develop an office cleaning plan for you. Our current client portfolio includes office buildings, retail and industrial premises. Our office cleaning programs are designed specifically to meet your requirements.
