For food that's good for you and a whole lot more ...pop in and get to know us better

There's something quite refreshing as you walk into a Thomas Dux store.

We're not a supermarket, not a deli or a butcher or a bakery. We're a total food experience where you'll discover the best fresh food and grocery lines all in the one friendly place.

We're your local quality grocer where our staff are mostly locals and genuinely pleased to see you on every visit. More importantly, we love food and are happy to share our knowledge about what's in season, all that's new on our shelves, the odd recipe, cooking tips and we're always generous with tastings so you can try before you buy.

From everyday to special occasions, you'll find the finest quality, great service and true value for money on all the foods that are good for you and your family ...and a whole lot more.

Fresh fruit and vegetables...we're as picky as you

To bring you the best seasonal produce every day, our fruit and vegetable buyers are up at the crack of dawn sourcing the freshest of the crops from our local suppliers at the Melbourne Fruit and Vegetable Markets. There's one simple reason, because we believe what's bought that morning should be on our shelves that day.

The everyday essentials you can't do without

You might be surprised to know you can choose from 1,000's of everyday essentials...every day. We have a huge selection of fresh milk and dairy products including farm fresh eggs, bread cabinets filled with every type of bread - and pastries - including Artisan styles too, and all your grocery needs including cereals, snacks, beverages and treats.

Pick up something from the deli

A new variety of Tasmanian cheese or Saskia Beer's Black Pig charcuterie range. There's always something new to try at the Dux deli. That's because we spend time with our suppliers choosing, sampling and learning about the wonderful selection of local and imported foods available. You can choose from over 60 varieties of cheese, mouth-watering antipasto delicacies, cured meats and succulent hams, olives, the most wicked range of cakes and pastries plus a fabulous range of pre-prepared foods from famous foodies like Geoff Jansz and Patchett foods. So, come in and be tempted.

Something special every day

When it comes to food and the brands we love, you'll find our specialty range sets us apart from the rest. Some of our specialty brands include Maggie Beer, Simon Johnson, Phillippa's, Cookie Couture, Herbie's spices range and Ornella Pasta. Our bread range will spoil you with choice and includes La Madre, Irrewarra and Phillippa's.

You'll also find Nonna's restaurant quality pre-prepared meats and the Macro organics range. All this makes for the perfect excuse to pop into the Dux every day!

Our platters make entertaining easy

The Thomas Dux Platter Collection has been designed for all occasions. Choose from 12 gourmet creations to take you from canapés through to delicious desserts. Every platter is prepared fresh by our deli team with only the freshest produce and the choicest deli fare. Place your order in-store...and make sure you take home a platter brochure for next time! thomasdux.com.au/thomas-dux-platter-collection

Bunches of good reasons to buy the Dux flowers

There's nothing like the colour and scent of the flower market that welcomes you to Thomas Dux Grocer every day. Bunch together your favourite flower varieties, pick a pre-prepared bouquet or indulge in a potted orchid or other plant varieties that are sure to add colour to your day. But it's the amazing value for money you'll find on our mark fresh flowers that will surprise you on every visit.

Saturday is The Dux Market Day

With every visit to the Dux there's something delicious to sample. On Saturdays, we take sampling to new heights with The Dux Market Day. It's our suppliers' chance to showcase their foods and share them with you. From our stalls out the front of the store to tastings throughout the store, our suppliers and our very own in-store 'Foodies' will excite your taste buds with something new every week.
