

Thank you for your enquiry with Kids School Tuition Centre!

Choosing a tutor and learning pathway for your child is no easy feat and Kids School is aware of this. There is a special connection that a parent must feel with the tutor to take care of their child.

Here at Kids School we understand that you entrust us with being a part of your child's life. We have over 10 years of experience, through the years we have established methods on making sure that your child improves in all areas through the their time here.

We make every effort to screen prospective tutors to ensure the upmost quality service is provided to your child. All our tutors are qualified professionals in their field. Our usual and clear preference is for qualified teachers. We do employ some university students in their final years of study. All employees hold Blue Cards.

Our programs move at your child's pace. While at the same continuing to increase your child's confidence and academic results in a few short lessons. All of this can be obtained without you having to leave your home. However, if you feel that face to face tuition is more beneficial for your child you can attend your local Kids School Learning Centre.

For any enquiries regarding one on one tuition, the drop in Centre, online tuition or adult classes, Please don't hesitate to contact us.

Yours Sincerely,

Tammie Ward-Hawkins

Director
