

Your Licence Pty Ltd

About Us

Your Licence is an Australian leading provider of online and onsite training courses for those in mining, transport and construction industries. Your Licence is an accredited provider of online and onsite training. Certifications are awarded by the Australian Registered Organisation (RTO) and are recognised across state and territories in Australia.

At Your Licence we provide a range of introductory and refresher courses. We can organise facilities, material and resources onsite or at a nearby facility or our own training facility to ensure the most time productive and effective training course.

We provide courses over a range of professional areas including dangerous goods, earthmoving, high risk work and verification of competency in dogging, forklift, elevated work platform and many others. For an overview of the courses we offer see our webpage or contact us for further information.
