

MORE JOBS. MORE TIME. NO COST

What is TradeEzi.com.au?

...Introducing the smartest way to find and quote new business.

TradeEzi is an online market place where, in simple terms, customers list jobs they require completed, and service providers provide quotes or request job inspections. The best part is, its completely free. Lets take a look at what TradeEzi can do for you, as a service provider:

TradeEzi will increase the number of opportunities you have access to at no cost, It will save you time, as you can quote and assess jobs that you are interested in - without having to travel onsite.

- It will make you more efficient, most service providers are busy, we want you to work smarter.
- It will advise you when you don't win a job, something that rarely happens today.
- It will, in general, create more jobs in the market by making it easier for customers to instigate jobs.
- There is no risk in quoting a job without physically seeing it, as all quotes are non-binding at the discretion of the service provider.

You can then review the Job and either request an Inspection of the Job first, or quote using one of the many ways we have available. All quotes are non binding, and you can mark the job for inspection if your quote is successful. Customers can list Jobs for free, and we provide a more efficient process for both the customer and service provider.

HOW DOES IT WORK FOR ME?

Here's some quick facts to outline the benefits of having a TradeEzi account:

- It's free to use for everyone
- Gives you real time access to jobs
- You can configure what kind of jobs you want and receive notifications of them
- There's a variety of ways to quote
- Job descriptions can include most media (images, video, blueprints)
- Explain what you need once, be heard unlimited times
- View a feedback system for members
- Access it anywhere, at any time (iPhone and Android apps coming soon)

TradeEzi accommodates a sophisticated "questions engine" which assists both customers and service providers in communicating the right information about the job. With Smart Phone applications on their way, we are making it even easier for customers to connect and communicate their jobs to service providers.

Get the right information to evaluate or quote opportunities, without wasting precious time.

TradeEzi has gone to great lengths to collect the correct information for each job. We ask the customer the right questions, so that service providers can assess their interest in a job in the most efficient manner.

Further to this we encourage input from service providers. Don't think we are asking the right questions, or feel we are missing a required trade? Let us know through the suggestion feature on the home page.

We aim to provide Service Providers with a more efficient process, access to more opportunities, and give them back some time for the important things in life, all at no cost..
