The Lockwood 001 would have to be regarded as the benchmark of automatic deadlatches on the market today. Strength, durability, attractive design and high quality construction have combined to make the 001 an ideal lock for all domestic and many commercial applications.

Features and Functions:

- automatic double cylinder deadlatch for timber frame
- lockalert function (red when engaged and green when released)
- safety release (automatically unlocks the internal knob upon entry)
- 60mm backset
- cut resistant 18mm projection stainless steel bolt
- 11 concealed anchorage points
- door frame strengthener
- hold back function
- suits door thickness 30mm to 45mm
- internal and external 5pin tumbler mechanism
- compatible to most restricted keying systems
- optional 3mm packers are also available
- supplied boxed
- finished in satin chrome