We act upon instructions as soon as they are received and guarantee a 48 hour turn-around on all instructions. We realise that the quicker we can reach a resolution, the better the outcome for you, with the added benefit for you of less legal fees to pay. We want fast turn-around of matters for you so you will continue to use us again.

Quality of Advice and Work

Our commitment to quality is importance to us. The high quality of our work ensures that costs are not wasted. Our initial 30-minute consultation is free of charge.

Transparency and Commerciality

Our commitment is to be open and transparent in our reporting to you. We will proactively report on the progress of each matter being handled on a monthly basis. Progress updates are provided in writing, on a regular basis, as agreed.

Before any step is taken or advice given, we turn our mind to the cost and benefit to the client. This is reflected in practical advices, which include, where available, the foreshadowed costs of implementing any advice given.

We understand how important a commercial approach to litigation is for our clients, and we always aim to maximise return wherever possible based on the specific circumstances of each case.

Main Practice Areas:

- Debt Recovery
- Commercial and Civil Litigation
- General Insurance Dispute Resolution

Debt Recovery

Our focus at ADC Legal is to keep your business running as efficient and profitable as possible. We do this by ensuring that you are paid for the work you have done and are bad debtor free. The steps we take to achieve this include sending Legal Letters of Demands on a lawyer's letterhead, which in our experience will often lead to an immediate reply and payment of the debt. The greatest threat to debtors, including individuals and companies, is to receive a letter of demand from a law firm followed by a Claim/Complaint and Statement of Claim. In some cases, a Statutory Demand or Winding Up Notice may also be the best method in respect of debts owed by companies.

At ADC Legal, our letters of demand explain to debtor companies and individuals that if legal proceedings are required to be instituted against them, that those proceedings will include a claim for interest on the debt and a claim for the costs of the proceedings to be paid by the debtor. In our experience our letters of demand have significant prospects of success. If they are not successful we will try all means possible to locate and contact the debtor to recover 100% of your debt. As a last resort, we will then recommend to proceed immediately with formal legal proceedings.

Commercial & Civil Litigation

ADC Legal conducts matters ranging from simple civil debt recoveries between individuals or small businesses; all the way up through motor vehicle claims and insurance claims recovery and defences; to commercial supply and breach of contract claims and defences, and as far up as corporate restructuring and multi-million dollar land acquisition litigation.

We maintain that each case turns on its own facts and that there should never be a blanket response to any legal matter. As such, at ADC Legal, each matter is approached with the highest level of care, attention and legal acumen; so that we not only obtain the best financial, commercial and legal result for our clients, but also; so that we retain the confidence and loyalty of our clients as well.

Here at ADC legal, we stress the importance of getting it done right the first time, as being imperative in the successful handling of any matter and as such, we are always seeking new ways of adding value to our clients businesses wherever possible.

If ADC Legal use time costing (in particular matters), we will charge an hourly rate for our legal services.

A flat rate will be applied for Principals and Senior Lawyers, a more affordable rate for Solicitors, and a competitive hourly rate for paralegals.

(b) Litigation

The costs outlined below are our special rates for recovery and litigation work.

Professional fees and outlays for undefended debt recovery matters in the Magistrates Court of Victoria and straightforward enforcement processes including bankruptcy and winding up are as per our Fees Schedule listed in our Costs Agreement. This schedule reflects the Court's approved scale of costs for this work. A schedule of costs for New South Wales, Queensland and other jurisdictions can also be provided. Any other legal work performed outside the pre-quoted list of steps in litigation can be quoted upon request.

By charging at scale our clients get the certainty of knowing what their costs will be up front in most cases.

Professional fees and outlays for defended matters in the Magistrates Court of Victoria, Local Court of New South Wales and the Magistrates Court of Queensland will be according to time costing at the rates stated above. ADC Legal will provide an estimate of the likely costs of the litigation as soon as the matter is defended. In addition to our stated objective to provide value for money, we always aim to ensure that fees charged are proportionate to the claim in dispute. A commercial approach to litigation is of paramount importance to the service we provide to our clients.

For any debts within the jurisdiction of the County Court in Victoria and the District Court of Queensland and New South Wales and the Supreme Court in Victoria, Queensland and New South Wales, please contact ADC Legal to obtain an obligation free quote.

Recovery of Legal Costs

We aim to recover the majority, if not all, of your expended legal costs.

We note that the longer a matter remains outstanding, the more difficult the question of costs becomes, which is why we aim to achieve the best possible results as quickly as possible.
