

Apartment Bathrooms

When it comes to apartment living, the clever use of space is required.

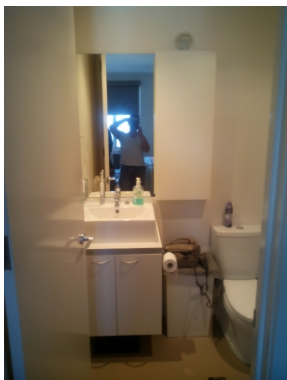

This apartment has 2 bathrooms, both of which looked more like a hospital room than a place to spend your personal time. To increase the available floorspace, the en-suite bathroom had a sliding cavity door fitted.

Features

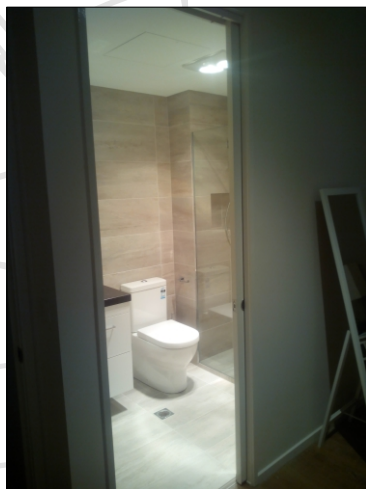

- Complete strip out of bathroom & fixtures
- New screeded shower bases
- Building of a niche in both showers
- Recessing shaving cabinets into wall cavity
- Alterations to plumbing to provide dual showerheads
- Fitting all new vanities, shower screens, toilets and other fixtures
- Tiling, with mitred corners
- Painting of ceilings, walls, doors, etc.
