

EXAMPLE General Tarot Reading

May 19 – End may/early June 2019

Your Cards

Present:

> King Of Swords

Man of authority

> The Sun

New opportunities, success, freedom, light shed on the dark areas of life

> Strength

Confidence, taming, compassion, promotion, finding your strength

> Queen Of Pentacles

Helpful woman of intelligence, nurse? , choices, contemplating, education

Summary:

King of swords represents a male of authority in your life, a boss or romantic relation, I feel that it is predominately a boss but could also be both.

The Queen of pentacles I feel is you/your energy. I feel as of you are currently contemplating an important decision, possibly regarding the king of swords.....regarding a possible offer made. I get a message regarding education and choice. This decision is a new opportunity that you have earned recently by overcoming some challenges in a working environment, with this came clarity regarding a secretive situation. This challenging event/circumstances has made you aware of your strengths and has given you a new sense of confidence and you will benefit from applying these.

You have a choice to make at work.

Challenges

> Two of wands

Overlooking, contemplation, heaviness, load on the back, gloom, riches, opulence

Summary:

A decision. A choice between materialistic gain and where your heart lays and your ethics.

PAST

>Temperance

Balance, Peace, Calm, Patience, Moderation, self-control

> 9 Of Swords

A priest? Deception, disappointment, ethics, worry, selfishness, dread, fear, restlessness, high emotions

> The Emperor

Authority, father figure, leadership, stubborn, controlled emotions

(the same as King of Swords)

> The Hierophant (in reverse)

Restriction, rules, structure, conflict with boss

Summary:

There was a situation that you had to let take its course, it was out of your control. I feel like this was a situation revolving around a work place? (I hope that you work, I feel like this is an ethical thing- and I see a hospital environment?).

You had to keep your emotions in check, it was hard because what-ever this situation was, it bothered you immensely, I feel even to the point where it kept you up at night or made you restless with dread and/or fear, as can be seen in the 9 of swords. I get the message priest again.

I got the energy of the knight of swords in your present for the emperor card, I believe this is to be the same person. I feel like they could be your boss? Who ever this person is, I feel like the two of you are failing to see eye to eye, there is some quarrelling going on – they are very stubborn. I don't get a good vibe from this person but I still get the message that they may be trying to help you in some way, specifically in regards to emotion...controlling your emotions at work? However, they are stifling you. Or were anyway. They left you feeling restricted and like you had no flexibility.

Future

> 4 of Cups:

Discontent with the environment, unhappy, turning down an offer, new knowledge, insight

> 6 of Pentacles [REVERSED]

Loss through study, Ambition, desire, passion

> King of Wands [REVERSED]

Sudden, Change of residence

> Knight of Pentacles [REVERSED]

Discouragement, Male influence

Summary:

The message I got for your future with the first card I drew, the 4 of cups, was that if you decision solely based on materialistic gain, rather than passion.... You will be dissatisfied. This could then lead you to isolation and failing to appreciate things.

The next card, the same message – GO WITH YOUR PASSION AND DESIRE! I feel like this might have to do with high education.

The King of wands represents a sudden change - I think that one of these offers would mean having to move.

Lastly, the knight of pentacles tells me that there may be a male influencing your decision also, or pushing you to make a particular choice? If so, what I feel, is that he does not have your best interest at heart, so please do not be persuaded by him.

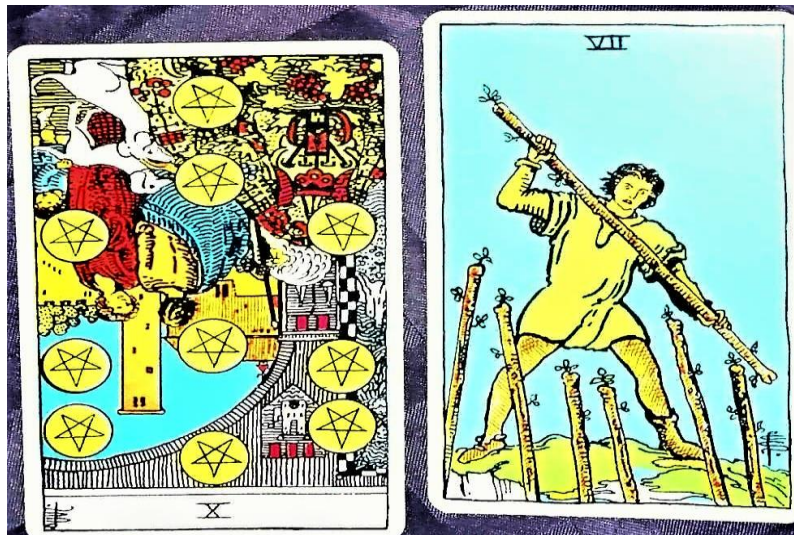

What you're failing to see:

> 10 of Pentacles [REVERSED]

Loss, robbery, gambling, chance, game of hazard, material success

> 7 of Wands

Negotiations, trade, discussion in work

Summary:

AGAIN! DO NOT JUST LOOK AT WHAT THERE IS TO GAIN MATERIALISTICALLY

Remember, you have courage, use it, you have strength. You also have an advantage that has influence in this situation – play this advantage and you will succeed

OVERALL – What you need to take from this reading:

> 5 of Swords

Don't fight, resist, change, subject to slander,

> 5 of Wands

Gain, riches, fortune, money – success in finances “richness of the heart”

> 7 of Cups

Reflection, project, contemplation, movement, fancy, traveling short distances, moving, reflection

> The Lovers [reversed]

Wrong choice

> Page Of Wands

Someone bringing you news

Summary:

Don't fight or resist change, go with it. You have 2 five's in the overall spread, 5 is the spirit number of change – so this to me indicates that you are about to or are in the process of undertaking huge life changes. Again, this unpleasant situation will pass, you will overcome it. I feel you have been the subject of slander, unfairly, with the intent to belittle you or for you to lose confidence – please don't. You are good at what you do, these cards suggest that if you fight from the heart you will overcome your competition – remain humble.

I feel like you are tempted by money, the lovers in reverse is a message to tell you that it is the wrong choice as it is for the wrong reason's. Someone may be glorifying one of the offers, this is what the 7 of cups tells me, but it is not as good as they are making it seem, its trickery. The 7 of cups looks like a magician making magical fancy things appear from the cups..... apply this concept to someone selling you an 'opportunity'.

Look out for messages, the universe is offering them to you.

The last card says that someone will soon deliver you some news.
