ABOUT US

First Security Response is a proud South Australian business
Located at Craigmore S.A.
Established in 2010 by Paul Vickery and since its conception, FSR has been dedicated and focused on providing professional and practicable security solutions.

Director Paul Vickery has worked within the security industry for a period of over 15 years.
Paul has gained a wealth of experience and knowledge from working in different sectors of the security industry.
From high level government infrastructure, medical facilities, mobile patrols ,static guard employment and within private security companies.

At FSR, an experienced and qualified management team combine with highly trained security officers and technicians to provide each customer with a dependable and flexible security solution.

Mobile patrol, guard and alarm services are coordinated to provide a security solution that protects business and organizations assets when they are most vulnerable, while remaining extremely cost effective.
