We offer only personalised services to our clients. These include:

- * We record, edit & burn to DVD, Youtube or for TV, videos of biographies, weddings, anniversaries, funerals, birthdays, products for sale and for any advocacy project.
- * We develop, deliver and host websites for eCommerce, blogs, franchises, social issues, events and information. Whether you are a large or small company or a NFP we can create exactly the 'story' your wish to convey to the Internet audience.
- * We edit & publish magazines & eBooks for clients. Almost everyone has a story they have partially or wholly written, so let us work with you to bring your story into eBook form for sale by downloading from the internet or in printed form.
- * For ALL our services we can provide Marketing, Promotion and/or Public Relations in any format required. This could range from an email marketing campaign, advertising in any media format, radio or TV ads, product launches, ANYTHING that promotes your project.
