Audio Commercials for Radio & Social Media

Have you spent money on traditional advertising with little results?
Do you want to take advantage of social media but don't know how?

Then your business needs an audio commercial to generate more interest in your brand & business!

Introducing Bryan Vitellaro, Song Writer & Composer. With a Bachelor of Arts degree in Popular Music Studies & French from Brisbane's University of Queensland, Bryan has the makings of a great songwriter and composer. As well as creating original music, Bryan writes and produces audio commercials for use on radio & social media.

Did you know that a strong presence within social media via the many free services available is an essential part of any modern business plan?

Social media, including Facebook, Twitter & YouTube, will help you reach out to and stay in touch with your fans & followers, providing you with a captive audience to advertise your latest products, discount offers, and events to. Pair the ubiquitous reach of social media with an outstanding audio commercial that you broadcast on your website's homepage, share on YouTube, Facebook & Twitter, then take to community or commercial radio, and you will have a very powerful tool which will increase your brand awareness and ultimately drive more customers to your website and to your door. You will find a whole new audience of online users who will actively seek out your website and follow your social media pages!

Audio commercials are available in 15sec, 30sec & 60sec in duration and prices start at $270. To hear a collection of samples of existing commissioned audio commercials, please go to...
