Bel Stephenson is a rural business - woman and entrepreneur. She is a passionate Brookton local and owner of "Country Belle Soaps", a unique rural micro business. Bel strongly believes in supporting local businesses and "Kailis Organic Olive Oil" an Avon Valley producer has become their primary oil supplier. Along with good friend Sharon Clayton owner of "Paradise Soaps", they develop and manufacture complementary artisan soap products.

From humble beginnings selling their products from local markets and fairs, Bel now markets a large range of olive oil, sheep tallow and lanolin soaps under the "Country Belle Soap" brand.
