Suit Yourself For a Day to Remember

Brisbane Grooms Doing It In Style

Dressing for such a momentous occasion can be fraught with complexities. The bride wants to look perfect and the groom wants to handsomely complement her perfection.

At John Harris Gentleman's Outfitters, we work closely with the bride and groom to coordinate colour, fabrics and style. (And if the groom is not to know the colour scheme, we can keep secrets too!) The groom, all attendants and the fathers of the happy couple are all catered for.

Our in-house tailors will alter garments as required to ensure a perfect fit for everyone. Some grooms prefer to purchase a handmade, bespoke suit and select ready to wear suits for the groomsmen. We also offer a hire service for children's garments.

Whatever you require, we always delight in creating something special. So, savour the personalised experience of a private fitting at our Milton showroom. Make a time to suit you, your groomsmen or your entire wedding party. We are at your service to ensure you are a portrait of style and elegance on your big day.

The comfort, confidence and sprezzatura of a John Harris suit is hard to match.

A FITTING GENT FOR FORTY YEARS: As a gentleman's outfitter, John Harris is as much a perfect fit as the suits he creates. With over 40 years in dressing gentlemen, John is well known for his eye for detail, style and astonishingly accurate measurements. His down-to-earth nature belies this extraordinary expertise. Trusted as much for his discretion as his experience, his associations with many customers have lasted decades. In fact, he now serves the sons of some of his longer-standing customers.

Australian Wool an Italian Prize

Off the Cuff . . .

100% HANDMADE, BESPOKE and READY TO SPEAK FOR YOU

The term bespoke dates back to the days when a client chose their fabrics from the full lengths of cloth kept on the tailor's premises. Once chosen, it was said the cloth had been spoken for. John Harris Gentleman's Outfitter's has more than 1000 fabrics ready to speak for you with style, comfort, quality and even a monogram.

Once you have told us what you need, we will advise you on styles and fabrics so that you get the look you want. Your perfect fit will be reliably delivered, to your exact specifications.

IF THE SHOE FITS?

We Guarantee It!

There is no question of whether the shoe will fit, when it is exquisitely handcrafted to your exact measurements.

Step up in confidence with the ultimate in comfort and prestige. The style you want, in the materials and colours you want, made to fit your foot.

Your bespoke footwear, is at our fingertips.
