FEEDING CLINIC

Taking the stress out of mealtimes

Picky eaters, food aversions and swallowing issues are not uncommon and can lead to stressful mealtimes and nutritional issues. Our feeding program uses a fun and step-by-step approach focussing on helping kids become comfortable with trying new and different foods and is suitable for young toddlers through to tweens. Our adolescent and adult program teaches about food properties, nutrition, swallowing and senses.

ASSESSMENTS

If your child needs a formal assessment, our therapy team will guide you gently through this process and provide reports to assist with planning therapy, diagnosis or school funding.
