SUNSHINE REMOVALS

Standard website package

Additional logo update to make it more contemporary

Sunshine Removals originally had a photocopied JPEG image for use as their corporate identity so a logo update had to be performed to keep the identity looking more fresh. The site also had to be simple and easy to navigate with only a small amount of text.

This site also features site counters, custom forms, mail-to-a-friend boxes and promo boxes.

Maintaining your roof is no different to maintaining your car.
If you don't do it, it won't operate correctly.

Your house is one of your most valuable material assets: it protects your family, your belongings and keeps you safe and comfortable every day.

Yet so many of us spend more money on what goes inside the house, like fancy electronic and appliances, than we do on keeping the actual house in good condition.

Here at Southern Cross Roofing, we not only understand the problems beneath the surface of your roof, we also understand the importance of keeping your roof looking good. Our services can help you avoid all the costly repairs associated with poorly maintained roofing, whilst increasing the resale value of your property!
