

- Services will be invoiced on booking confirmation.
- Payments must be received prior to the release of any images.
- Wayback Designs retains the right to use any images for marketing and promotional activities.
- The Client retains unlimited usage rights to all images (photo credit is optional).
- Wayback Designs retain the right to cease all services and require full payment in the event of security or safety concerns
- The client warrants that they have the authority to have photographed and publish images of all persons in attendance.
- Wayback Designs accepts no liability for loss, damage or claims from the services provided